

Wanda Jackson, Wasted

Wasted lonely nights wasted times I cry
Wasted a love so true I've wasted all the love I had for you
Wasted a lovin' heart my hands were tied right from the start
Your carefree heart will never see just what this wasted love has done to me
It's made me cry it's made me lonely it makes me sad why love's disarrayed
Wasted years and years wasted tears and tears
Wasted love that was to be now all I have is wasted memory
(steel - fiddle)
It's made me cry...
