Warrior Soul, Hero

hey, hey boys wont you hold the line wewe been down here a long, long time big wheels turning and I dont know why I stand here to defy hey, hey boys bravery on my mind my heads been splittin from this 9 to 5 when the grind knocks me into my feet these are the words that I repeat, now

III be a hero in my own time III be a hero in my own time if I stand I know III shine III be a hero in own time, in my own time

hey, hey boys workin on the line we work metal to survive but day to day pressure on my soul i have to scream when itsout of control, now

III be a hero in own time III be a hero in my own time if I stand III shine a hero in my own time, in my own time

hey, hey boys hear the wistle blow a hard days done and its time for you go as i walk out to the street crack a beer and my mind repeats, now

III be a hero in my own time III be a ero in my own time if I stand I know III shine III be a hero in my own time, in my own time

III be a hero in my own time III be a hero in my own time III be a hero III be a hero III be a hero III be a hero in my own time