

Wavorly, Madmen

Say goodbye to what you thought was you

We dance in consequences
Entranced with worldly glimpses
Careless with our decisions
You'd think we never meant them

We say that were the future
Only want it if it goes our way
The time we have is crucial
Will we put this off another day?

No excuses, the time for change is here and now

This is the real adventure
To move past what's mediocre
Obsessed with entertainment
Step up or miss the point of it
