

Western Disco, I Remember

I Remember, we were singing with the windows down
I Remember, the two of us escaping from this town
And if you want to, all you need to say to me is yes
I Remember, we were singing with the windows down
I Remember, the two of us escaping from this town
And if you want to, all you need to say to me is yes
'cos i remember, and it hasn't even happened yet

I Remember, stripping down to nothing in the cold
I Remember, laughing at ourselves when we are old
And if you want to, all you need to say to me is yes
'cos i remember, and it hasn't even happened yet

I Remember, we were singing with the windows down
I Remember, the two of us escaping from this town
And if you want to, all you need to say to me is yes
'cos i remember, and it hasn't even happened yet
