

Whereisalex, Alone (ft. ROLE MODEL)

i can't help it friends keep melting no one happy
while we selfish my fist get real tight realize don't relay afraid forget what we want to forget what how we felt like smoke till I am too high cry till I break down don't need blue eyes Molly gets me crazy tequila even worst
I know that you might hate me do I have to wright a verse no way, go away

I think I'd rather be alone not today, walk away
life's already been enough
I just wanna be alone
I think I'd rather be alone
no way, go away
I thing I finally had enough
not today, walk away
life's already been enough
I just wanna be alone
I think I'd rather be alone

the morning' s Sun is suck cause I wanna stay tucked I wanna get drunk without falling in love remember last summer we didn't too much I like that way it was whole a lot of fun Sunday mornings are the best cause we 're beaten to death you can kill me in the club cause I don't dance like other rest I not cool and not decisive I not cool and indecisive you're alone that I like it, that I like it

no way, go away
I think I'd rather be alone
not today, walk away
life's already been enough
I just wanna be alone
