

White Kaps, Envy

i've got eyes i can see

everything's blurry
i've got ears i hear
so don't fucking worry
i've got eyes i can see
everything's blurry

anything you think, i already know it go behind my back and your actions expose it didn't fool me from the start only envy fills your heart have you ever heard of loyalty

[chorus]

jealousy has left you with nothing, no less ! one man's agony, another's success

can't find yourself, it's not in me another man's confused by jealousy the green eyed monster's got you in his hand he's not real, made in the mind of a man feeling drunk, can't set yourself free can't deal with your insecurity

[chorus]
