

Widespread Panic, Casa Del Grillo (English Version)

Listen to the sound of the crickets
Breathe deeply as many sounds become one sound
Ah, hide away in the lament
Relax, I am the one who is waiting for you

All souls are welcome in the House of the Crickets
Judging by the sound of the silence, they are beginning a song again
Hide away in the lament
Relax, I am the one who is waiting for you

Who loves you above all the land
Above all the land?

Angels and angels waiting to be

Listen to the sound of the crickets
Breathe deeply as many sounds become one sound
All souls are welcome in the House of the Crickets
???
Hide away in the lament
Relax, I am the one who is waiting for you

Separate men, no more, no more
Separate men, no more
Thank you
