William Fitzsimmons, Even Now

How long should I wait before I let you go? How long should I decide? Whose side should I take When both of us were wrong? When we both share the blame

Oh but I love you even still even now Even though we fell apart Even still even now But I hope well meet again

Whose eyes will you look in When love is in your heart? Whose hand will hold your ring? Whose voice will serenade To help your baby sleep? To make it all okay

Oh but I love you Even still even now Even though we fell apart Even still even now And I hope well meet again Even still even now Even though we fell apart Even still even now And I hope youll be okay
