

Within Temptation, Believer

We've got a reason for failing here
To be a gracious believer now
You are the greater that comes around me
To be a gracious believer
Stand up, believer, to be bigger
You're not struggling at me
Stand up, believer, to be bigger
Believe

We've got a reason for failing here
To be a gracious believer now
You are the greater that was around here
To be a great (never faith you ?)
Whenever I hear my heart, reach out for you darling
Have you seen, the ruins of my world
Whenever I hear my heart, reach out for you darling
Have you see, the ruins of my world

We've got a reason for failing here
To be a gracious believer now
We got a greater that comes around here
To be a rage and a fail you
Stand up, believer, to be bigger
You're not struggling at me
Stand up, believer, to be bigger
Believe

Whenever I hear your heartbeat, reach out for you darling
Havent you seen, the ruins of my world
Wherever your heart, reach out for you darling
Havent you seen, the ruins of my world
