

Wiz Khalifa, Close Frame

I'ma be honest, probably break a promise
Pretty young thing but she get it from the doctor
Bad lil bitch, get it all from her momma
Staying at my crib, use my shirt as her pajamas
I could help you balance your chakras
Meditate with me, girl, fix up your posture
I could help you balance your chakras
When you with me, you a winner, that's the mantra

I done came up, got my name up
Practice on my pimpin', had to get my game up
Niggas throwing shots, better get their aim up
Ain't really a threat, niggas like to play tough
I'm the type of nigga that'll wake up and bake up
Come and get your girl 'cause if we link up I'll take her
She don't even gotta wear a lace front
Got her body done but don't need makeup

I'ma be honest, probably break a promise
Pretty young thing but she get it from the doctor
Bad lil bitch, get it all from her momma
Staying at my crib, use my shirt as her pajamas
I could help you balance your chakras
Meditate with me, girl, fix up your posture
I could help you balance your chakras
When you with me, you a winner, that's the mantra

Left, right, left, right
I don't want the bitch unless the sex right
Kush gotta hit me in the chest right
Smoking weed tryna live my best life
Walk into this bitch and watch her get hype
Lamborghini running through red light
Bust her down, walkin' with her head high
Smoking on some kush from the west side

I'ma be honest, probably break a promise
Pretty young thing but she get it from the doctor
Bad lil bitch, get it all from her momma
Staying at my crib, use my shirt as her pajamas
I could help you balance your chakras
Meditate with me, girl, fix up your posture
I could help you balance your chakras
When you with me, you a winner, that's the mantra
