

Wiz Khalifa, In The Game

Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh, uh
Uh, uh, uh, uh, uh

I'ma need you on your back spread eagle
I like a lot of money and my kush legal
Like it when she suck me up and look evil
I need my bitch to suck me so I look single
I need my bitch to love me like she never loved a nigga
I need a little space, homie, why you in the picture?
Looking for the boss then I'm gon' deliver
Had a big hit, this one's bigger
Shorty gone off straight liquor
Got her whole cup filled up and it ain't mixer
Twisting joints up like a blender
If you ain't with a bad bitch then you can't enter
Where you going? What's your name? I don't remember
Say you wanna rep my gang, you a member
Take you to a strip club after dinner
Lot of baddies in the game, you the winner

Little do they know I'm the one
That'll spend a hundred grand, get it back when I'm done
Little do they know I'm the one
That'll put a pound of the KK in my lungs
Little do they know I'm the one
That don't gotta buy shit, they call me, I'm the plug
Little do they know I'm the one
That do what I want, get the middle finger if you judge

Can't even be mad at the girl 'cause when ten o'clock come
She be up in Cheetahs
I might fall through late with a pound of KK
I'ma roll that weed up
I ain't worried 'bout money
I don't gotta chase that 'cause I know it's coming
If you let me hit once, you gon' run it right back
'Cause you know it's bussing
Get a private room, we don't need no interruption
Nine times out of ten she got boyfriend or a husband
Fucking up the section in a whole 'nother country
What I paid for it, they gon' say it's out the budget
Got you doing bad shit in public
Living like a rockstar and you love it

Little do they know I'm the one
That'll spend a hundred grand, get it back when I'm done
Little do they know I'm the one
That'll put a pound of the KK in my lungs
Little do they know I'm the one
That don't gotta buy shit, they call me, I'm the plug
Little do they know I'm the one
That do what I want, get the middle finger if you judge
