

Wiz Khalifa, Memory Lane

When the days turn to nights
I keep thinking 'bout you moving on (Shee)
Makes me wonder if you hear this song (Yeah)
Would you right the way that we went wrong?
Yeah, when the days turn to nights
That's when I begin to lose it all
Makes me wonder if you hear this song
Would you right the way that we went wrong?

Played before you instead of running game on you
Kept it one hundred, I expect the same from you
Held it down for me every time them lames come through
Said they was down to do the shit I did, but they ain't want to
Now every time it come on, you get uncomfortable
Been a couple years since you left, you see how time flew
You been on my mind every day, I'm on your mind too
Make me think about all the shit that I survived through
I be ridin' 'round by myself, but that's what pride do
Got you thinking 'bout what you said and how it's not true
There you go with the memories
The reason the ego's the worst enemy

When the days turn to nights
I keep thinking 'bout you moving on (Shee)
Makes me wonder if you hear this song (Yeah)
Would you right the way that we went wrong?
Yeah, when the days turn to nights
That's when I begin to lose it all
Makes me wonder if you hear this song
Would you right the way that we went wrong?

It's funny how one play can could put you in the mood for the day
A good one or a bad one depending on where you stay
Just let me know if it's safe
'Cause we done did shit that you can't erase
And fuck the shit I bought, I gave you game that you can't replace
You came up in a major way
Quit moving out of fear, started moving out of faith
You tell me that you heard our favorite song the other day
First, you was trying to leave, now you say you on your way
That's the price to pay, I guess that's what love cost
Just cause you walked out the door don't mean the love lost

When the days turn to nights
I keep thinking 'bout you moving on
Makes me wonder if you hear this song (Yeah)
Would you right the way that we went wrong?
Yeah, when the days turn to nights
That's when I begin to lose it all
Makes me wonder if you hear this song
Would you right the way that we went wrong?

Seen it at a concert (Shee), you called off work
Even bought the shirt
Was glad we was there for the crowd surf
We said that night, we both found our purpose
Had both our hands going in circles
Listened over and over
Trying to find out what the words was
It came from a band we never heard of
But now it's the soundtrack to our life
Rolled up all day to it, ride all night
Every time we turn it on, people say all kind of shit
Now you gone, go figure

So you better not play it for another nigga
