

Wiz Khalifa, No Cupid

See Ya

Beat that motherfucker up, Quad

Heart's been broken, fucked up, words been spoken
Now that door is open so I'm gone
Heart's been broken, fucked up, words been spoken
Now that door is open so I'm gone

Why you in that mood? Why you in that mood?
Why you in that mood? What the fuck did I do?
One day, shit's cool, then a day you a fool
I don't like how you move, wake up and assume
You don't even need clues, but you ain't in my shoes
So you can't make rules, I don't chase, they choose
Gotta know what the cost is
I ain't sayin' that I lost nothin', but I pay dues
Know you been around bosses
I ain't really with the gossip or the fake news
Heard a lot about me but it ain't true
This a lot of bullshit that you can't prove
Got a lotta patience, but I ain't stupid
Tryin' to explain it, there ain't no Cupid

Heart's been broken, fucked up, words been spoken
Now that door is open so I'm gone
Heart's been broken, fucked up, words been spoken
Now that door is open so I'm gone

You wanna be the one that I ride with
When you gotta be the one that I vibe with Caught me up when I was hangin' with a side chick
Went through my DM and chose violence
I ain't trippin', no, you gotta be silent
Trippin' over what I write, that's nonsense
Gettin' mad over nothin', that's childish
Two girls comin' with me, that's balance
That's just what I need, too stressed so I leave
Don't speak 'cause this drug move silent
Only see a good side, couple days of the week
Interest, I don't know where your mind is Where the spark go, tryna find it
Is this real? It's a fucked up content
You forgot, think you need a reminder
Blowin' up my phone, but I ain't responding

Heart's been broken, fucked up, words been spoken
Now that door is open so I'm gone
Heart's been broken, fucked up, words been spoken
Now that door is open so I'm gone

Ayy, what up? We back, we in this bitch, we still rockin'
Uh, you know
Turn the hot tub on, uh, order some food, see ya
