All the chicks on Snapchat
They love that social media life and shit

See anything you want
Anything you want, girl
All I see is you
Anything you want
Anything you open

Drink Bombay 'til I'm out of touch
Go good she gon' fall in love
Its been a long time since she got a nut
We can take our time we ain't got to rush
And nah she don't need no wedding ring
This the shit that we go through everyday
I let her know she can everything
Be a coach I can teach you how to run a play
Ba a boss tell you girls that you want to stay
Take if off when I give it don't run away

Seen him in the club hating the other day
