

Wizard, End Of All

Odin knew the truth
but led them all to doom Einheriers and gods
trust in his words

Follow me to victory
let us slay them all!
in his eye one lonely tear shows his mortal fear

Refrain:
The gods are dying, the world is crying
in this final war
The gods are dying, the world is crying
this is the end
the end of it all

With a smile on their face they march into the blaze together for their holy land they ride out to defend

Thousand wounds are bleeding the gods are going to die facing their eternity
under the northern skies
