

Wouter, Come A Little Closer

Falling at your feet
Am i in to deep?
Tell me
I don't wanna leave
Coz i know that you're hiding what you feel

We'll never know what tomorrow holds
But if we don't try
Perhaps in time we'll wonder why
And what might have been

Chorus:
Come a little closer
Come on let me hold ya
It ain't wrong if it feels right
So come a little closer
Let me get to know ya
We might only have tonight
Come a little closer

I'll put us on the line
If it can make you mine
Yeah
If you don't feel the same
Then i've already lost you anyway

We'll never know what tomorrow holds
But if we don't try
Perhaps in time we'll wonder why
And what might have been

Chorus

I didn't mean for this to happen
Things don't have to change
But i'll still feel the same
If you try to trust your feelings
You'll see it's not so hard
Now we've come this far

Chorus
