

Wynn Stewart, If Tomorrow Could Be Yesterday

If three could be two if one wasn't blue
If tomorrow could be yesterday
Then you'd still love me too like I still love you
If tomorrow could be yesterday

But I don't have the powers to turn back the hours
To the time before he met you
And if minutes were years I've cried an ocean of tears
Cause tomorrow can't be yesterday
(steel)
Oh no I don't have the powers...
No tomorrow can't be yesterday
