Wynn Stewart, We

WE'LL NEVER LOVE AGAIN Writer Harlan Howard

Oh the nights I've cried, how I'd die inside Knowing we'll never love again, love again One mistake I've made, what a price I've paid Knowing we'll never love again Passion ruled my mind, made my conscience blind And a million times, I've paid for my sins Darlin please forgive, I don't want to live Knowing we'll never love again I still hear you say, as you walked away Knowing we'll never love again, love again I was such a fool, broke love's golden rule Now you say, we'll never love again
