

Wynn Stewart, You're That Someone Else

If you ever change your mind and want me back again
And to forgive for all the times you've made me cry
What will I do if I should have somebody else by then
Well tell me how to tell that someone else goodbye

How do you walk away and leave them crying
And just break a heart without a reason why
I'd like to know cause if you ever want me back again
Well you're that someone else I'll have to tell goodbye
(guitar)

How do you walk away and leave them crying...
You're that someone else I'll have to tell goodbye
You're that someone else I'll have to tell goodbye
