

X Ambassadors, Love Is Death

I lie awake at night
Dreaming of a time where I could say the pain was worth it
That I didn't deserve to be treated so unkind
You saw me crying on the fire escape
I locked your eyes
Loked like your face was frozen
Like you didn't even notice me dying

But even through you know i would stay
I'd risk my life for you
I'd twist that knife for you

Love is death
Love is dying
Whit every breath
Cells dividing
I am dying for you /2x
Love is steel
A silver lining
With every tear multipling
I am crying for you
I am dying for you

Blood sacrifices made
It's everything it takes for me to keep from screaming
Like a rabbit out my sleeve,
It's a miracle I'm still breathing
But I have no choice,
It's like my voice is in a box that's buried leagues and leagues below me
With only fishes for company

But even through you know i would stay
I'd risk my life for you
I'd twist that knife for you

Love is death
Love is dying
Whit every breath
Cells dividing
I am dying for you /2x
Love is steel
A silver lining
With every tear multipling
I am crying for you
I am dying for you
