put that gun to my temple put that gun to my heart make me walk off the plank chi cha all always in to the dark

i cannot wait to die
can't you tell

never finish my degree cha chi never play with the Pogues throw my head out the window and cement my feet into the dark
