

Years & Years, All For You

I've been thinning was it all a different scene in my head? you've got powers you instructed all the demons instead everyone sees a man so tall so perfect, they said you've got ambition

I thought we would grow in time I wasn't prepared now, am I forgiven?

you look like you're so damn scared
I don't really think you care yes you know that our time is through it's over when I leave you said: we're never gonna meet again you played your game, it was all for you

it's all for you

is it always just a stand in for a man that can't heal?
I've got arrows, am I shooting through the sky for us still na, na, na and I have a spent a year wondering if I had all of the blame and love's a bitter fruit if you choose to remain I your shame but you couldn't listen, no

it's all for you

kneeling at your temple love was accidental singing bruises, I was foolish thinking I was careful losing every battle
no hands, no rush
no touch, no drag
no blood, no love
I'm doing it all for you

I said: so long

it's all for you
