

Years & Years, MNEK, Valentino

i think i must have met him yesterday he waltzed in from the outskirts of east L.A.
He seems to be the name on everybody's lips so I told myself I wouldn't fall for it, but than...

Quicker than a flash, he had me at hello
He took me by the hand, we started dancing slow
I didn't wanna get attached but now,
I'm far too close
And he knows just what he's doing

I didn't know, when I met Valentino
I was giving him control over me
no I am stuck in his melody
let me go, let me go Valentino
you're not getting anymore out of me
I don't want your cruel melody

he knew what to say to sweep me off my feet I should've never heard a word he said to me I was colorable with ignorance is bliss cause I told myself I wound't fall for it, but then

Quicker than a flash, he had me at hello
He took me by the hand, we started dancing slow
I didn't wanna get attached but now,
I'm far too close
And he knows just what he's doing

I didn't know, when I met Valentino
I was giving him control over me
no I am stuck in his melody
let me go, let me go Valentino
you're not getting anymore out of me
I don't want your cruel melody

I should have known not to trust Valentino
I should have known not to trust Valentino tonight I am saying goodbye Valentino we know just what you're doing

I didn't know, when I met Valentino
I was giving him control over me
no I am stuck in his melody
let me go, let me go Valentino
you're not getting anymore out of me
I don't want your cruel melody
