YUNGBLUD, love song

All i learned growing up
Was that love chewed me up
Spit me out on the pvement next to cuts
And the blood that my mum and dad would Always take out on echa other

Only thing i know
That a love culd lead me up
Was protecting my sisters from all the cuts
And the blood that my mm and dad would Always take out on each other

Sweetheart, you are Changing my mind Sweetheart, you are Changing my mind

Nobody taught me how to love myslef So ho can i love somebody else? There ain't now excuses I swear that i am doing my best Nobody taught me how to love myslef So ho can i love somebody else? I am so new on this I swear that i am doing my best

I won't let you down I won't let you down

[zwr 2] (?)

Sweetheart, you are Changing my mind Sweetheart, you are Changing my mind

Nobody taught me how to love myslef So ho can i love somebody else? There ain't now excuses I swear that i am doing my best Nobody taught me how to love myslef So ho can i love somebody else? I am so new on this I swear that i am doing my best

They will try to pay for me
To erase all the memories
But i can't
But you shine so bright in a spotless mind
Someone gets left behind

Nobody taught me how to love myslef So ho can i love somebody else? There ain't now excuses I swear that i am doing my best Nobody taught me how to love myslef So ho can i love somebody else? I am so new on this I swear that i am doing my best

I won't let you down I won't let you down I won't let you down I won't let you down
