

YUNGBLUD, original me (feat. Dan Reynolds of I

I am so sick of me wake up and hate to breathe and I pride myself in that so dramatic I'll admit

I'm so typical my life ain't difficult but I am so caught up in it just a lowlife , I'll admit I am self-crucial, try-hard original oh I pride myself on that such a loser, I'll admit and I ask myself when my time will come will I run away, will I run away?

I am the original loser
some days I wish I was anyone else
I am the original loser
some days I wish I was anyone else

I am so paranoid, most people I avoid not seeking sympathy I just want all of this under the umbrella
I try to shelter myself for the rain I try to pop my head form going insane I'm, counting down, al the days I swear that there's a [oce they took being alone can I suffocate you when they cannot fucking chase me out? anagram all of the letters telling' me that I am gonna be fine cleansing the world is out of my mind piece 'em together and dump on the sides I'ma be alone tonight if I try to stay alive and realise I am going blind

I am the original loser
some days I wish I was anyone else
I am the original loser
some days I wish I was anyone else

don't let 'em change your mind
don't let 'em change your mind
don't let 'em waste your time
don't let 'em change your mind
don't let 'em change your mind
don't let 'em waste your time

some days I wish I was anyone else
I am the original loser
some days I wish I was anyone else
