

Zara Larsson, Can't Tame Her

I wanna know where the hell would she go
Nobody knows, nobody, nobody knows

No, you can't tame the girl
'Cause she runs her own world
So if she wanna party all night (All night)
No, you can't tame her, no
And you can't tie her down
When the night comes around
Say she gonna party all night (All night)
And you can't change her, can't blame her, can't tame her

Can't tame her magic energy
She's so magnetic, pulls you in
Every time (Every time)
Every time (Every time)
But she don't care, she gonna do what she want (She want)
Because she never needed any reason (Reason, yeah)
Yeah, she ain't conscious, she just wanna have fun
Ooh....
