

Zara Larsson, Talk About Love (ft. Young Thug)

Patience is a virtue
I ain't trying to hurt you
I need you to read between the lines
Call me out and it's not fair
Told you i don't wanna go there
Swear that i can taste it
All your expectations
Rising up, but push tchem to the side
You know i am down to go anywhere
But i told you i don't wanna go there

I think you feel good
Think you're so sweet
But you're taking this all too seriously
You can get close
Where i won't bite
Baby, look into my eyes

I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I just wanna keep us right here in the moment
Why you gotta grt lost in emotion
I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I can make your dreams come true overnight

I'll do anything that you like
But i won't talk about love

[Young Thug]

I dont wanna talk about love
I don't got tiem to be lying like a rug
High and ight like Kawasaki i ride it ride it
And iam coming baby
Put your hand in my pocket
I ain't got time to be lying liek no doorway
Shawty persuade she try to grab me i might run away
Can you pleas tell me i am in control baby
Sugarcoat today
Icy like the Eiffle tower babe
Why you wanna talk about it all the time
I see the way you vibin
Keep me hypnotizing
Diamonds loud like sirens

I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I just wanna keep us right here in the moment
Why you gotta grt lost in emotion
I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I can make your dreams come true overnight

I'll do anything that you like
But i won't talk about love

Cause love always blows up in your face
Love
Always goes south in the worst ways
Right now i am not in that head space
And this ain't the time or palce to bring i tup to me
Cause honestly o'll walk away

I dont wanna talk about love

I dont wanna talk about love
I just wanna keep us right here in the moment
Why you gotta grt lost in emotion
I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I can make your dreams come true overnight

I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I just wanna keep us right here in the moment
Why you gotta grt lost in emotion
I dont wanna talk about love
I dont wanna talk about love
I can make your dreams come true overnight

I'll do anything that you like
But i won't talk about love
