ZEAL & ARDOR, to my ilk

Mmm Mmm

They'll make you come alive one day They'll make you step inside to make you pay So don't get stuck in pride, my love When you'll be watching me from far above

As long as they come, hold your bones to break 'em Only when the day come, you can sail away My child, my dear My child, my love My love Mmm

They'll take you far away, my kin They'll take you places you have never been So don't get lost in thought, my ilk Wrapped in finest cloth and finest silk

As long as they come, hold your bones to break 'em Only when the day come, you can sail away My child, my dear My child, my love My love

Oh Mmm Oh Mmm Oh Oh
