

Zebrahead, Anthem

I got a girlfriend

Only she don't know it yet

I got a six string best friend

Who sleeps with a broken neck

I want to make my mark change the world, with this flow

But, all this doubt in my head

It won't let me go

Can't you see I want to lock my door and shut out all the world surrounding me

Safe from the problems and the pressures caused by insecurities

Get up! Get up!

Let the good times roll!

Get up! Get up!

Take my heart and my soul!

Get up! Get up!

Let the good times roll

On and on and on..

Feel like everybody else just needs to see through different eyes

From the outside looking in we shout the anthem of our lives

Come on and let me go

and just like everybody else

I feel the pain each time I try

But I'll fight the bitter end

to shout the anthem

the anthem of our lives

I got a heartache

She's my insecurity

I got all these on my tongue but they escape me

I want to breakout, Carpe Diem,

I know, but all this doubt in my head It won't let me go

Can't you see I want to find my own direction on this busy one-way street
Where all the influential people never bother helping me

Get up Get up!

Let the good times roll

Get up Get up!

Take my heart and my soul!

Get up! Get up!

Let the good times roll

One and on and on..

Feel like everybody else just needs to see through different eyes

From the outside looking in we shout the anthem of our lives

Come on and let me go

I feel the pain each time I try

to shout the anthem

the anthem of our lives

This is the Anthem

Out to all the misfits

If you feel you don't belong

If you don't give a shit

About authority

About majority

About conformity

Shout it out

Let us go! [x7]

Everybody else just needs to see through different eyes

From the outside looking in

we shout the anthem of our lives

Just like everybody else

I feel the pain each time I try
to shout the anthem
the anthem of our lives

Feel like everybody else just needs to see through different eyes
From the outside looking in
We shout the anthem of our lives
Just like everybody else
I feel the pain each time I try
But I'll fight the bitter end
to shout the anthem
the anthem of our lives
