Release date: 1. November 1999

Album: Welcome to Zididada

Open up your eyes so you can see everything's for free girls with long blonde hair one kiss and you'll be there the sunset in her eyes loves to tell you lies but you will never know lean back and let it flow

She make's you think this night will last forever

She make's you shine
so bright and fine
she makes you fly away so high high that she would so anything though you had a ball you might feel pain pride will mess your brain you could limb out of here but that will get you nowhere Close your eyes and you will see second ride ain't free the Cathouse always wins you slowly sliding in

She makes...

She makes you shine...
