

Zucchero, I don't know

Taking time to find myself
Seeing how Ive been so crazy
But still I dont love you
Being in love has been my crime
My hearts beats have been so lazy
But still I dont love you
Ive been lost this time with feelings
Do you know my mind
I dont
And I dont know why
And I dont know how
And I dont know
And I want no lies
But I dont know why
And I dont know
And I dont know
When I run away to hide
Then I made a thousand changes
Im sorry, I dont love you
Thinking of the pain inside
And the way it always tested
Im sorry, I dont love you
Ive been thinking more about you
And I know my minds crazy
And I dont know why
And I dont know how
And I dont know
And I want no lies
But Im ever gonna know why
Why I dont know you
But I lied in fear
Like a little child
And I dont know why
Now I have to cry
Tears are gonna tell you why
Why I dont you
I dont know . . .
. . Ill never leave you. . .
